Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction. — 2 Timothy 4:1

OCTOBER NEWS 2005

GET READY... GET SET... GO!

God has been preparing Jim to begin this ministry in earnest, and one way has been through providing godly counsel from those who have gone before. In the month of September the ministry gained a title, got a website up and running, received not for profit corporation status, and printed new business cards, brochures, envelopes, etc. Many thanks to all those who have provided much needed help: Carolyn Mason, Josh Mason, Chris Fadden, Tony Kessinger, Mike Terry, Donnie Legg, Chris Wilson, Charles Berry, Tre' Faaborg and many others.

Recent Leadership Retreat

From September 30 to October 2 Jim was the keynote speaker at Leadership retreat in Williamsburg, VA. He presented the principles of a God-centered church, which were received extremely well. Jim also preached twice on Sunday morning at South Norfolk Baptist Church.

Justapreacher getting fed...

On October 7, Jim attended a one-day preaching seminar in Naples, Florida taught by Pastor Adrian Rogers. The instruction on preaching was good, but what Jim really appreciated was the time with Adrian Rogers. He really enjoyed getting to know the heart of this godly man.

Jim asked Pastor Rogers, "Over the course of your ministry, if you could change anything, what would you have done differently?" Rogers responded, "I would have believed God for more." He went on to explain that even though God had done phenomenal things in the ministry, he felt that God would have done more. Matthew 9:29 states, "According to your faith it will be done to you." This greatly impacted Jim. He truly believes God is going to do amazing things thru the ministry into which He has called Jim. He is now striving to "believe God for more".

What about you? If "according to your faith" it is done to you, what would be happening in your life? Believe God for more!
